Special Session Adjourns; Truman Program Ignored

May Resume At Call Of GOP Leaders

Washington, Aug. 7.—(P)—Congress wrote its own ticket today on anti-inflation and housing legislation, then slammed the door on the extra session called by President Truman.

The House adjourned at 6:31 p.m. (central standard time); the Senate at 7:30 p.m. They had met July 26 and had been in session 11 working days.

The adjournment was until December 31, with a provision that the session may be resumed earlier on call of the Republican leaders.

With a few minor exceptions, the lawmakers rewrote, blocked, or just plain ignored the far-ranging program Mr. Truman presented with an "urgent" label.

Truman's Program Cut

The President's eight-point anti-inflation program emerged cut down to two: Revived curbs on installment buying and higher reserve requirements for banks belonging to the federal reserve system. The Senate beat back by a 53 to 33 vote a democratic attempt to revive rationing, price and wage control powers. The Truman plan to bring back the excess profits tax wasn't even considered.

Republicans said their housing bill would encourage the construction of low-cost homes and rental housing. But it omitted the federal subsidies for public housing and slum clearance that were features of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill endorsed by the President.

Approve Loan To U.N.

Mr. Truman had his way without quibbling on only one major item. The lawmakers approved a $65,000,000 interest-free loan to the United Nations for construction of permanent headquarters in New York.

Until the last couple of days, two extracurricular developments stole show from the actual lawmaking. One was a successful 5-day filibuster by southern democratic senators against the anti-poll tax billing the other was a sensational series of hearings, before House and Senate committees, on charges that Communist spies and sympathizers had wormed deep into the federal government.

Hearings Cause Controversy

Those hearings brought bitter words from both the White House and the Capitol.

Mr. Truman accused the Republicans of trying to hide the shortcomings of Congress by a "Red Herring" hunt for Communists in New York.

Then, in the Senate's closing hours, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) went so far as to speak of "impeachment."

"Congress," he declared, "is rapidly being pushed into the intolerable position of having to legislate through a blind spot or compel the President to answer for his conduct in an impeachment proceeding."

REPORT EARTHQUAKES

Pasadena, Calif., Aug. 7.—(P)—Two heavy earthquakes were recorded at the California Institute of Technology. They were believed to be about 8,800 miles distant, probably in the vicinity of the Indian ocean.

BLAST HEARD 40 MILES

Pueblo, Colo., Aug. 7.—(P)—Army officials said today they believed a bolt of lightning set off an explosion at the Ordnance depot last night. The blast was heard 40 miles from here.

MAN IS SHACKLED WITH BALL CHAIN TO MEET BRIDE

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 7.—(P)—When Larry Flaugh, 23, stepped off the train here early today with a 23-pound ball and chain shackled to his ankle, a suspicious citizen reported him to the police.

But Larry wasn't worrying about the cops. All he wanted was to get rid of the thing that he'd dragged from Tulsa, Okla., as he headed here for his wedding Sunday.

The ball was clamped on his ankle Friday by playful classmates at Spartan College of Engineering just before Larry boarded a plane. It was his send-off as he started back home to marry Lucille Hemminger, 19, at Edmore, Mich.

More flustered than Larry was Lucille, who had heard reports from Chicago of his plight.

Some reports said the pranksters had mailed Lucille the key to the lock. But she had not received it at the time Larry arrived. She was carrying a small hickory when she went to the station to meet him.

However, a letter that arrived this afternoon solved everything. Inside was the key.

Several members of the groom's family were disappointed at the timely rescue.

"We'd like to have seen it kept on for the wedding," they said.

"A wedding's no place for such foolishness," Larry retorted. "I wouldn't have gotten it off somehow," he said.

'Eat No Meat' Campaign Spreads Over United States

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(P)—Budget-harried housewives increased their buy-no-meat campaign over telephone wires today in the face of a government prediction that meat prices will go higher.

The boycott plan, originating in Dallas, spread to such cities as Louisville, Boise, Kansas City, San Francisco, Indianapolis, 16 cities in Texas and half a dozen in Wisconsin.

The housewives' crusade was aimed directly at one of two causes given by the department: record consumer buying power and a decline in the output of meats and other livestock products.

Meanwhile the agriculture department predicted that meat and other livestock prices will lead a retail food price advance in the next few months.

Truman Nominates Cabinet Members To Fill Vacancies

Washington, Aug. 7.—(P)—President Truman nominated Maurice J. Tobin of Boston tonight to be secretary of labor.

Tobin is a former Democratic governor of Massachusetts and former mayor of Boston. He is now practicing law in Boston.

The President hurried the nomination to the Capitol to meet a deadline set up by plans for adjournment of the extra session of Congress. If he had failed to beat the adjournment gun the nominee would have gotten no pay checks between now and the next meeting of Congress.

Washington, Aug. 7.—(P)—President Truman nominated Elmer H. Wene of New Jersey today to be assistant secretary of agriculture.

It was the second time that Wene has been nominated for the post. Previously, he had indicated that he didn't want the job.

A native of Vineland, N.J., Wene is a former Democratic member of Congress from that state.

If confirmed by the Senate he would succeed Charles Brannan, who became secretary of agriculture.

Plan Celebration For 74th Birthday Of Herbert Hoover

West Branch, Ia., Aug. 7.—(P)—This little community, where former President Herbert C. Hoover was born to Quaker parents in a humble two-room cottage on Aug. 10, 1874, will give him a big party Tuesday on the 74th anniversary of his birth.

Along with a picnic and program featuring Hoover as the chief speaker, the Hoover Birthplace Society will present the only living ex-president with plans for a 25-acre addition to the historic shrine.

The affair will mark the first such public celebration here since Aug. 10, 1928. Great fanfare attended Hoover's presence here on his 54th birthday as he opened his successful presidential campaign.

The picnic luncheon which opens the fête is the former president's own idea and at his suggestion "old-fashioned country fried chicken" will be the main dish.

Musical groups and youth organizations will play a prominent part in the parade.

The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and 4-H clubs all will present special scrolls to Hoover and William B. Anderson, president of the Hoover Birthplace Society, will present a plaque bearing four horseshoes.

The horseshoes were found at the site of the blacksmith shop which Jesse Hoover, father of the ex-president, operated across the street from the Hoover home.

Station Attendant Wards Off Robbers

Oklahoma City, Aug. 7.—(P)—Two would-be service station robbers met an obstinate attendant here today.

The attendant, George M. Brown, 48, first refused to give them any money and then turned down a request to help shove their car because it was stalled.

"I'm going inside to phone the police and if you move I'll blow your head off," he told them. "I've got a gun inside."

While Brown was inside the station, however, another car pulled into the station and shoved the car.

BELL ASSOCIATE DIES

Baddeck, Nova Scotia, Aug. 7.—(P)—Frederick Walker Baldwin, 66, an associate of Alexander Graham Bell, died here today.

"In scientific experiments, died to would have gotten it off somehow," he said.

FBI Arrests Two Men On Charge Of Government Theft

Indianapolis, Aug. 7.—(P)—An army officer, an Elwood, Ind., junk dealer and a Calumet City, Ill., bartender were held by FBI agents today on charges of theft of 8,000 sheets and 4,000 pillow cases from Deactivated Wakeman General hospital at Camp Atterbury.

Federal agents identified the men as Lt. John J. Ward, 39, post engineer at Camp Atterbury with headquarters at Fort Benjamin Harrison; Abraham Levi, 67, operator of the Elwood Iron and Metal Co., and Ward's brother, Bernard, 40-year-old Calumet City bartender.

Levi was arrested today by FBI agents at Elwood and other federal authorities picked up the elder Ward at Hammond. Lt. Ward was arrested by military officers and turned over to the FBI.

Harvey G. Foster, special agent in charge of the Indianapolis FBI office, said the sheets and pillow cases were valued at $16,919.25.

The theft allegedly took place last April when the stolen goods were removed from the place where they had been stored since the hospital was closed by the government.

The trio is charged with taking the sheets and pillow cases to Levi's junk yard and then transporting them to Chicago after sale was made to an unidentified person in Chicago.

Name Successor To Canadian Prime Minister King

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—(P)—Louis St. Laurent, French-Canadian minister for external affairs, was named today successor to Canada's Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King.

He was elected leader of the National Liberal party on its first ballot today.

And as leader of this dominant Canadian party, he automatically will become prime minister when King retires, probably about the end of this year.

He defeated two candidates, James Garfield Gardiner, minister for agriculture, and C. C. Power, former air minister.

St. Laurent, former corporation lawyer from Quebec, is 66 years old. He will be the first French-Canadian prime minister Canada has had since Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1919.

The Liberal party convention gave St. Laurent 448 votes, Gardiner 323, and Power 56. A simple majority was 150.

Trygve Lie Asks U.N. To Settle German Problem

Lake Success, Aug. 7.—(P)—Secretary-General Trygve Lie called on the big powers today to settle the German problem either inside or outside the United Nations.

Lie said in his annual report to the general assembly he didn't care how the four interested nations tackled the problem so long as they reached a solution.

He told them, however, not to bring their dispute to the U.N. unless they come "in the spirit of a genuine attempt to find a solution."

"Nothing," Lie said, "would contribute more to the effectiveness of the United Nations than a settlement of this problem."

The secretary-general, while stressing the importance of Germany as No. 1 problem, expressed concern over several other issues including what he called a race for the production of bacteriological and chemical weapons.

He also warned the great powers the world never would submit to the rule of any one ideology; whether it is communism or extreme capitalism.

One of the most disappointing developments during the past year, Lie said, was failure of the U.N. to make any progress on atomic control, arms reduction or creation of a world police force.

Confederate Flag Sales Increase

Dallas, Aug. 7.—(P)—A Dallas store owner is unhappy because of a "3,000 per cent" increase in sales of Confederate flags.

Store owner J. Hugh Campbell attributes the demand to the Dixiecrat movement against President Truman.

"We used to get maybe 25 or 30 calls a year for Confederate flags," Campbell said. "Now we get several a day, and the people get worked up because we can't fill their orders right away."

Berliners Fear Results Of Moscow Peace Conferences

Berlin, Aug. 7.—(P)—Concern was reported growing among western Berliners tonight that a "new Munich" may be in the making in four-power negotiations on Germany taking place in Moscow.

Calling for a firm western stand against new demands by the Russians, the Socialist newspaper Telegraf said the "brave attitude displayed by Berlin" under the Soviet blockade had "earned this city assurances of a free democratic life."

"Unfortunately," the newspaper said, "there is evidence today that, despite their sorry experience since 1945, the Democracies again are inclined to trust the promises of a totalitarian power. Anyone who believes that the differences between the Democracies and Russian totalitarianism can be resolved merely on the German problem or the Berlin question is on the road to a new Munich."

Socialist Otto Suhr, chairman of the Berlin city council, told a rally of Berliners in the French sector that a "poor compromise must be decided upon at the cost of us Berlin cellar-dwellers."

The Moscow talks have been wrapped in secrecy.

The Telegraf and Suhr may have based their remarks on a Russian-licensed news agency dispatch quoting "informed Washington circles" to the effect President Truman and secretary of state Marshall had agreed in principle to withdrawal of western-sponsored currency from Berlin.

Actually, the western powers are issuing more of their money. They arranged for credits to firms whose bank accounts in the Russian sector have been blocked by a Russian order.

The Russians have claimed the Americans made provisions for forcing down planes which departed from prescribed routes over the U.S. occupation zone and implied they could do the same thing over routes to Berlin through their zone.

An American official said it could not be determined immediately whether the Russians were "just talking" or really intended to take forceful action.

National Guard Air Force To Test Flight Maneuvers

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(P)—To determine how quickly and effectively national guard air power in the midwest could rise to meet an aggressor force, guard units will engage in a game of aerial chess Tuesday.

One hundred planes will meet at Joliet, Ill., and fly north in a sham attack on enemy positions in Milwaukee, Madison and other key Wisconsin centers.

The attack will be led by Brig. Gen. Frank Allen, commander of the 66th Fighter Wing. The planes, P-51 fighters and A-26 bombers, will come from air national guard units in Illinois, Michigan, Missouri and Wisconsin.

The Wisconsin targets are fuel installations on a peninsula south of Maitland air strip, Milwaukee; Trux air field, Madison; the Onalaska railroad yards north of LaCrosse, and Camp McCoy, near Sparta.

The entire flight will cover 528 miles and will last 2 hours and 17 minutes.

All planning for the maneuvers was done under simulated emergency attack conditions, including alerts to guard pilots, reports on enemy strength and information on enemy movements. The attack is based on the logical plan for an aggressor power bent on invading the U. S. from the northeast.

The armada will disperse at Rockford, Ill.

Family Escapes Auto Explosion

Freeport, Ill., Aug. 7.—(P)—A family of four discovered a fire today in the rear seat of their car and jumped out just as the gasoline tank exploded.

None of the William S. Bouray family was hurt but their car was totally destroyed. The Bourays were driving from their home in nearby Davis to Freeport on state Route 75 when the fire was detected.

How They Voted

Washington, Aug. 7.—(P)—Here is how midwestern senators voted today when the Senate defeated the Barkley amendment to the Republican anti-inflation bill:

Illinois: Lucas (D) for the amendment; Brooks (R) against.

Missouri: Kem (R) and Donnell (R) against.

Wisconsin: McCarthy (R) and Wiley (R) against.

Truman Interfering With Public Business: Ferguson

Republic Of Korea To Be Proclaimed Next Sunday

EDITOR'S NOTE: Korea—ill-suiting its historic title "land of the morning calm," is moving rapidly towards formal creation of two opposing governments. Backed respectively by the United States and Russia, each claims to represent the entire country. This explosive situation, so often obscured by big-power rivalries elsewhere, is put into perspective in the following article by William R. Moore, Associated Press correspondent in Seoul. Moore is a qualified observer. During the army interruption of his AP career he served two years as an officer of the military government in Korea.

Seoul, Korea, Sunday, Aug. 8.—(P)—The American-sponsored republic of Korea, with a hopeful name that ignores the threats and rival preferences of the Russian-occupied north, is to be born in South Korea one week from today.

The new Republic is to take from the American hands that intangible thing called sovereignty over half of the territory and two-thirds of the population of this sharply divided country.

It starts life with an unhealthy economy and a shaky defense. It expects Uncle Sam's help in bolstering both.

The date is the third anniversary of the liberation from Japan, whereupon the United States and Russia arbitrarily divided the country for occupation purposes along the 38th parallel of north latitude. That supposedly temporary division has hardened with the years.

Throughout the occupation, Russia has refused to join in any unification plan that would not have the effect of assuring a Communist regime for all Korea.

Both the security and economic problems of South Korea are blamed in large part by the Americans and by most South Koreans on the fact that Russia is setting up a Communist state in North Korea.

President Syngman Rhee, who will head the new southern state, plans some time this week to request formally that U.S. occupation troops remain until his republic is safe from the northern threat.

With growing vituperation, the North Korean radio has attacked the southern Republic as a puppet of "American imperialism" and has demanded that it be "destroyed."

The radio hints of invasion by the North Korean Red army, but there has been none. President Rhee is proceeding on the theory that there will not be as long as American troops remain.

Western Envoys Await Another Call From Molotov

Moscow, Aug. 7.—(P)—Envoys of the three western powers expect a call from Soviet foreign minister V. M. Molotov tomorrow or Monday to resume negotiations to solve the thorny east-west deadlock in Germany and perhaps all Europe.

After two lengthy meetings with the Russians—on Monday night with Prime Minister Stalin and another last night with Molotov—all of the issues between the four powers have been brought into the open and laid on the conference table.

The present stage was described by an authoritative source here as a "negotiations period."

A British diplomatic source said the London western powers thus far have failed to agree with Russia on a broad basis for four-power talks on Germany. The informant said some progress was being made in the negotiations but Russia had raised objections to "certain concrete proposals" made to Molotov last night.

The negotiations period as such may continue for some time. In other words, there may be several more meetings with Molotov before all four negotiators are ready to report back to Stalin.

At this point, things are believed to be proceeding all right. There have been a lot of frank exchanges over the Berlin question and Germany. The three western envoys have been talking pretty bluntly about the Berlin blockade and the Soviet has been just as frank about Allied plans for a western German government, it was said.

U.S. To Reject Communist Effort To Control Danube

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Aug. 7.—(P)—Ambassador Cavendish Cannon told Russia and the Soviet satellites today the United States intends to reject any Communist monopoly over Danube river shipping.

Europe's most important inland waterway will remain cut in two, the American diplomat said, unless the Communist bloc goes part way toward meeting the demands of the western powers.

His warning touched off speculation as to whether the western powers will abandon compromise attempts and take a walk from the Danube conference here.

Responsible diplomatic sources said such a move had been discussed privately by members of the United States, British and French delegations but that no decision had been taken thus far.

This much appears certain: No one of the three western powers will sign a pact establishing a new regime over the 1,800-mile trade artery unless major changes are made in the Russian plan for the river's control.

For the time being, at least, the western delegations are sitting out the one-sided negotiations for the purpose of getting their position on record for future use.

There is one important trump card in American hands—control over some 700 river barges in the U.S. zones of Germany and Austria and control of the river above Linz, Austria. Russia has blocked northward Soviet shipping downstream from cause of his curiosity and a large migration of herons to the Hammond area.

Mrs. Phil Weinberg, a neighbor, captured one of the birds in her yard and covered it with a basket.

When Stinett bent to peek at the Heron through a hole in the basket, the bird's beak flashed out and put out his eye.

ASK RETURN OF SOLDIERS
Berlin, Aug. 7.—(P)—The British asked the Russians today to hand over two British soldiers whom they used as prosecution witnesses in the trial of two Germans accused of armed robbery.

Warn Truman Of Congress Impeachment

Washington, Aug. 7.—(P)—Senator Ferguson spoke sternly of "impeachment" today in accusing President Truman of lowering "an iron curtain between Congress and the public business."

His complaint was against the executive's refusal to let the lawmakers have "loyalty" investigation records of government workers.

There was no comment forthcoming from the White House.

In a speech to the Senate, Ferguson declared:

"Congress is rapidly being pushed into the intolerable position of having either to legislate through a blind spot or compel the president to answer for his conduct in an impeachment proceeding."

"We do not want representative government reduced to such a ridiculous position."

Denied Information On Remington
Ferguson is chairman of the Senate investigating subcommittee which closed its public hearings on the case of William W. Remington this week because, the committee said, Mr. Truman refused to turn over necessary records and information on Remington.

Remington, 30, is a commerce department official. He has been suspended while inquiries are being made into charges by Elizabeth T. Bentley that he gave her wartime information for a Soviet spy ring.

Ferguson said that as a senator, President Truman "had been intensely critical of this secrecy," built up under President Roosevelt.

"But when he became president," Ferguson continued, "he became the willing prisoner and mouthpiece of this power clique."

Congress Rules President
Ferguson noted that Congress has the "final word" under the Constitution and added that if a president "carried the powers of his office to unconscionable extremes, the Congress can dispose of him by impeachment proceedings."

"The president, on the other hand, has no powers vested in him that would permit him to dispose of Congress," he said.

Ferguson told the Senate that some day Congress "shall have to meet the issue head-on because the trend to presidential arrogance is becoming intolerable."

Ferguson said refusal to turn over the Remington papers "is only the most recent and immediate of a long series of deliberate blockages" that kept information from Congress.

Ferguson said this trend expanded under the New Deal because the "New Dealers were going to accomplish a peaceful revolution and they didn't want to answer any more questions than they had to—either to Congress or anybody else."

Started In Agriculture Dept.
The senator said his information is that "the Communists got their first foothold in the Department of Agriculture and spread from there to other agencies."

Ferguson said a "soil of political-military hierarchy" was built up centered in the White House with the late Harry Hopkins as the chief.

"What these people said and did was secret," he continued, "to be revealed to Congress, the press and the people only if it seemed expedient."

Ferguson said an example of the censorship and secrecy was exposed by the congressional investigation of Pearl Harbor after the war. He served on that committee.

To Construct Giant Aircraft Carrier

Washington, Aug. 7.—(P)—The United States navy announced tonight that construction will get under way soon on its $100,000,000 giant flush-deck aircraft carrier.

The carrier will be the largest ship afloat, a navy spokesman said, with a water line length of more than 1,000 feet, and a beam, or width, of 130 feet. That will be 20 feet wider than the Panama Canal locks.

The huge vessel will be constructed by the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company, Newport News, Va. The job is expected to take two years.

ANNOUNCE PRICE INCREASE

Omaha, Aug. 7.—(P)—The Omaha World-Herald announced today the price of its Sunday paper will be increased from 12 to 15 cents. The daily and Sunday rate for papers delivered by carrier will be increased from 32 to 35 cents weekly. The paper said higher production costs, especially the cost of newsprint, make the increase necessary.

New District Will Vote Next Thursday
On Building School

Plans for a new modern grade school to serve the children in Community Consolidated District No. 2 will be submitted to voters of the district next Thursday, August 12, at a special election.

The polling place will be located at the present South Jacksonville school building. Election hours will be from 12 o'clock noon to 7 p. m. (Central Standard Time.)

Voters will ballot on propositions to authorize the board to construct a new building, and to issue bonds up to $325,000 for building.

The consolidated district includes all of South Jacksonville and a large territory to the southeast, south and west of the village.

A site for the proposed new building was authorized at an election held some time ago. It is located between West Vandalia Road and Park avenue in South Jacksonville.

Would Start Building Soon

Board members said Saturday that if the propositions are approved by the voters Aug. 12, construction work is expected to start this fall and the building would be ready for occupancy by September, 1949. Preliminary plans were prepared several weeks ago by an architectural firm.

A public meeting has been called by the board of the consolidated district for Monday evening, Aug. 9, at 8:30 p. m. Telephones and TAXES

Don't forget that not all your monthly remittance is retained by the telephone company. A portion of the total bill, as you know, goes to the Federal Government in the form of excise taxes.

The tax on local service rental and on all toll messages under $.25 is 15%. On toll messages of $.25 and over, the tax is 25%. For example, if your local bill for monthly service is $4.60, sixty cents of that amount is in tax. If you have a toll bill for the month of $5.00, one dollar of that is tax. We merely collect this tax and pass it on to the Government.

In addition, the telephone company pays, and it is not shown on your bill, a special 3% utilities tax. All that is over and above the usual property taxes, capital stock taxes, occupational retailers tax on purchases, local franchise taxes and service. Your telephone service is one of the heaviest taxed industries in the country.

Not that we object to paying our fair share of taxes. We do object, however, to being classified in the category of luxury goods. We regret that we have to pass these taxes on to you, our subscribers, who use the telephone as a day to day necessity.

Rural Chorus To Appear At Fair

Urbana, Ill.—Massac county chorus has been chosen from the southern Illinois district to sing a special number at the State Fair, Springfield, on Saturday evening, August 14.

One chorus from the northern district and one from central will be chosen to do special numbers also, according to Robert G. Haley, director of the Illinois Rural Chorus, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

The entire rural chorus, largest of its kind in the country, will present five songs on the same program at the fair. The songs will include: "Keep Your Lamps Trimmed," Cain; "Almighty God of Our Fathers," James; "Old Joe Clark," Winstead; "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes," Cain; and "The American Creed," Frey.

Part of the chorus will sing at the State Farm Sports Festival, Urbana, on Friday, August 27. And about 350 members will go to Toronto, Canada, to sing at the Canadian National Exhibition on August 28.

With about 1,200 members, the chorus is made up of 28 smaller choruses from 30 Illinois counties.

SHORT OF OIL?

INSTALL A WINKLER LP* OIL BURNER

Save fuel—save money

This Low Pressure Oil Burner amazes men who thought they knew all the answers on oil heating! It eliminates wasteful over-firing by releasing just the amount of heat your boiler or furnace can efficiently absorb.

The kind of burners you've known in the past release more heat than the heating plant needs—wasting from 30% to 50%. The Winkler LP* operates on the low pressure principle and can be directly sized to the requirements of the home heating plant.

That's why this sensational burner can make a substantial reduction in your oil consumption.

Dependable Simplicity
The revolutionary Winkler LP* is utterly simple—no gadgets or intricate adjustments. This trouble-free burner is not affected by changes in oil viscosity. It needs no filter because nozzle openings are large enough to pass dirt particles that put conventional burners out of service.

Let the Winkler LP* slash your fuel bills. Phone for a free heating survey—or come in for an eye-opening demonstration.

Courtesy Campaign
For Drivers Opens
Here Next Monday

The "Courtesy Campaign" will begin Monday. Then, and for ten days, judges will roam the streets of Jacksonville to pick the most courteous driver for the day. Each day the chosen driver will receive a crisp $5 bill.

The campaign is sponsored by the Chicago Motor club, and it is run in cooperation with the Jacksonville Journal Courier and civic organizations.

Promotes Safe Driving

The purpose of the campaign, according to Arthur Daum, Chicago Motor club public relations agent, is to make the community conscious of good driving habits and common courtesy on the streets.

Mr. Daum stated that in terms of the 1947 traffic toll, consistent courtesy to observe the ordinary traffic rules would have saved 16,000 lives and averted 562,000 serious injuries in traffic accidents.

A judge from the 1947 courtesy campaign stated that his method in choosing winners was as follows: "Usually we would park near a stop sign in an inconspicuous car. If a car pulled up to a full halt, we would follow that car for awhile. If the driver kept observing the rules of highway courtesy, that was our man."

The judge further stated that more than one driver had the $5 within his grasp only to lose it because of a subsequent violation of some traffic rule.

Acts of Courtesy

One of the interesting features of the courtesy campaign is that it emphasizes more than a strict observance of the law. It emphasizes acts which are beyond the letter of traffic laws. Some of these acts include slowing down to avoid splashing mud on pedestrians; assisting aged or handicapped pedestrians to cross streets or to board or discharge safely from buses; yielding right-of-way to turning vehicles caught by traffic congestion in inconveniently or potentially hazardous positions.

Yielding right-of-way to cars having difficulty emerging from parked positions or side streets into dense

Robin Roberts Leads Phils To 6-2 Triumph Over Cards

Philadelphia, Aug. 7.—(P)—Robin Roberts, the Philadelphia Phillies' $25,000 bonus beauty, pitched and batted the Phils to a 6-2 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals today before a Saturday crowd of 9,871.

The Cardinals not only found their five-game winning streak evaporated but lost the services, at least temporarily, of Third Baseman Whitely Kuroski who was hit by a thrown ball just before the game. Roberts won his third straight game and his sixth of the season with a neat five-hitter. He walked off his first major league home run in the seventh and connected for two hits in three times up.

The result was the direct reversal of yesterday when the Cardinals' ending the Phils' five-game victory with a 6-2 triumph.

Kuroski was struck on the left temple by a ball thrown by Bobby

Fletcher, a rookie catcher trying out with the Phils. He received emergency treatment in the dressing room and was able to watch the game.

Whether Kuroski will be forced from the lineup for some time was not learned.

Senators Edge Tigers

Detroit, Aug. 7.—(P)—Five Detroit

errors—three of them by Shortstop

Johnny Ligon—counted heavier than the 13 walks issued by two

Washington pitchers today as the Senators wrung out a 3 to 2 victory over the Tigers in 10 innings.

Ligon's third error, combined with errors by Gil Coan and Ed Stewart, gave the Nats an unearned 10th inning run that gave Dizzy Trout his 12th defeat.

The Tigers got seven hits off Sid

Hudson and Lewie Forrest Thompson and left 17 runners stranded on the bases.

Hudson, who issued 12 of the passes and loaded the bases three times on walks, departed with the sacks full in the Tiger ninth and

Thompson took credit for the win.

THE STORY: The strange set of fingerprints found in the Sterling library belong to a George Hamilton, Chicago gangster supposedly killed 12 years before. Description of Hamilton's description of man who visited the Sterling home the night of the murder.

XXXXVI

MICHAEL STERLING had been dead two weeks when Marcus Sterling and Janet Werhagen had their first meeting since the murder. It was not a meeting in private, nor pre-arranged. It was on a Thursday, toward evening, and they were surrounded by the Memorial Day crowd at Edgecraft Country Club.

Sterling had gone out to the club in response to urgings to fill the place scheduled for him in the club's holiday handicap tournament. He had played listlessly, yet his methodical skill had made him definitely a contender for the day's trophy. He acknowledged locker-room praise modestly but with an absence of spirit that could not escape attention.

Sterling rushed through his shower and his dressing. He was crossing the foyer when Janet Werhagen intercepted him.

"Marcus, dear, how happy I am to see you!" Janet said.

"Oh, hello, Janet."

"I'm glad you've come out of hiding."

"Not hiding. Just tremendously busy."

"I know. Too busy for telephone calls. Have you any idea how many times I've left my name with Brant? Once or twice, even with your secretary?"

"Sorry, Janet. I've taken over a load of work at the bank," Sterling said sheepishly.

Janet studied the serious face, the unsmiling eyes. "I'm glad the holiday rescued you for a day," Janet said. "You'll join my table for dinner, won't you, or aren't you free?"

"I'm free, but I'm not staying here for dinner."

"You're not at all like yourself, Marcus. At least we can sit down for a drink before you rush away?"

"Well, we can do that . . . of course, we can do that."

They found a small table in the lounge. The place was crowded, rang with laughter. There were calls from other tables, cheery greetings to Janet, carefully restrained salutations to Sterling.

They sat silently with their cocktails, sipping at them. Sterling was inattentive. Janet struggled against chagrin, puzzled over the pronounced change in Sterling.

Janet took out her cigarette case, selected a cigarette. Sterling aroused himself just in time to hold a light for her. She was smiling at him, through the smoke, when he reached for her own case, picked it up, ran a finger over the cigarettes in it.

"Strange I've never noticed before that you smoke Luckies," Sterling said.

"Shouldn't I?"

"All right, I suppose. I was just thinking how dangerous they can be, in certain circumstances."

"That's startling, Marcus, or is it a riddle?"

Sterling forced a grin that succeeded poorly. "Lieutenant Talent is looking for a woman who mashed out a smoked Lucky on my library rug," he said, with deadly absence of emphasis.

Sterling's eyes were still idly on the cigarette case. He did not see the pallor that spread over Janet's face, nor the sudden frightened widening of her eyes. Janet was gulping the last of her cocktail when Sterling looked up. She offered no remonstrance when, setting down his own empty glass, he suggested that he'd be running along. The eagerness in her words matched his own when they parted. Richard Trapgood's voice startled her visibly, some minutes later, when he found her on the terrace staring vacantly toward the faintly defined shore of Long Island.

TOWARD the middle of June, Sterling learned that Janet had sailed for a long visit in South America. Her home would be boarded up for the summer. The European war had precluded travel across the Atlantic.

IN August, Sterling heard from T. Bryan Steadman. The lawyer imparted news that at another time would have created a crescendo of rejoicing. Sterling received it calmly. His thanks were perfunctory. The lawyer told him a check for $100,000 had been deposited to his credit. The insurance company, upon expiration of the stipulated 90 days, was indemnifying Sterling for the stolen diamond necklace.

WHEN the directors of Harbor Trust Company met in December to consider ways and means of expressing the spirit of the approaching yuletide in proportion to duty loyally performed, it was unanimously voted to double Marcus Sterling's $5000 a year. "He's earning it," said a director.

"He's living up to what we expected," said another. "Old Chester K. back in the flesh. Too bad it took his wife's death to put him on his feet."

The chairman smiled. "He's a Sterling, gentlemen," he said. "We'll have him sitting with us on this board in another year."

NOT quite a year later, because the directors of Harbor Trust Company had not understood what had driven Marcus Sterling into his intensive application to work, they were inexpressibly shaken from their dream of his future. On the day after Pearl Harbor, with only an emotional announcement of his decision, Sterling enlisted in the armed forces of the United States for the duration of the war. Only T. Bryan Steadman knew that Sterling had taken time out to write a will. He left it with the lawyer in a sealed envelope.
